

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Underline and correct a mistake in each sentence.

- We not allowed to bring calculators to math exams: it's cheating. _____
- I can be rude to my parents because they will yell at me. _____
- My friends told me the students in his school are allowed listen to music on their phones in class! _____
- You don't need bring a ball to the game: we have a lot here. _____
- We don't have to wear blue shoes to school: only black ones are allowed. _____

2 Rewrite the sentences using the words in parentheses.

- She must be organized with her schoolwork. (has to) _____
- Can we use dictionaries on the exam? (allowed to) _____
- You mustn't bring your dog into school. (allowed to) _____
- We don't need to wear uniforms on Sports Day. (not have to) _____
- Is it necessary to get good grades to go to college? (have to) _____
- You can't have sloppy handwriting if you want to pass the exam. (must not) _____

3 Complete the questions about a school trip. Don't use can more than once.

- _____ we wear our own clothes?
- _____ we _____ play our music on the bus?
- _____ be well-behaved all day?
- _____ our friends from other schools _____ come on the trip?
- _____ write an essay about the trip afterward?

4 Complete the text with the correct form of can, must, have to, need to, or be allowed to. Sometimes more than one answer is possible.

My cousin told me about this amazing Computer Games Club that you can join in our town. You ¹ _____ pay very much, and you ² _____ have a lot of fun there. There are rules, of course: you ³ _____ be over 12 and you ⁴ _____ eat or drink near the computers, but you ⁵ _____ bring your friends and it's open until late on weekends. If you do something they don't like, they don't yell at you. They just tell you that you ⁶ _____ come in for the rest of the week. I'll ask my parents if I ⁷ _____ join the club next weekend. I'll ask my cousin if you ⁸ _____ take your ID.

5 Imagine a club that you would like to start. Write eight rules for it in your notebook.
