

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Circle the correct options.

- If we stop / don't stop using so much plastic, the oceans will be full of pollution.
- There won't be rainforests on the planet in the future if / unless we stop destroying them.
- If we stop hunting endangered species, they could / won't survive.
- Climate change won't / doesn't slow down unless we change the energy we use.
- There won't be more marine wildlife if / unless we don't protect the sea.
- If I have / 'll have time next semester, I might start an environmental group at school.

2 Complete the conditional sentences with the verbs in the box.

can doesn't don't might will won't

- If we all work together, we might save the planet.
- If everyone thinks about their waste, we will produce less pollution.
- We won't be safe here if the volcano erupts, so let's move.
- The icebergs will melt if we don't solve the climate change problem.
- If the cave doesn't look too dark, I'll go inside it.
- Maybe we can protect marine life if we stop using plastic.

3 Circle the correct options.

- If people didn't use so much paper, forests ... disappear so fast.
a won't b wouldn't c don't
- If there ... more solar energy production, climate change would slow down.
a was b wasn't c is
- If I could, I ... join the wildlife protection group.
a will b wouldn't c would
- We could walk to the waterfall if we ... so tired.
a weren't b wouldn't be c aren't
- I ... use plastic bags for my shopping if recycled ones were available.
a don't b would c wouldn't
- People would eat more fresh fish if the rivers ... look so dirty.
a don't b didn't c wouldn't

4 Complete the sentences with a word or phrase from each box.

didn't destroy ~~didn't waste~~ protected reduced studied used

pollution solar power the environment
the rainforests the sea ~~water~~

- Everyone would have enough to drink if we didn't waste water.
- There would be more oxygen if we reduced pollution.
- Energy would be cleaner if we used solar power.
- Wild animals would be safer if we didn't destroy the rainforests.
- Marine life would survive if we protected the sea.
- Schools and universities could help save the planet if more young people studied the environment.