1 Complete the conversation with the correct form of the verbs in the box.

interpret    say    shake hands
smile    tell    translate

ELIF    Hey! You look happy! What's making you
1 smile so much?

HIRANUR    Oh, hi. I just met Sarah's cousin. He's lovely!
He's very formal too – we 2 shook hands
when we met.

ELIF    Really? Where's he from?

HIRANUR    He's Italian. He doesn't speak Turkish, so I'll 3 interpret for him while he's here!

ELIF    Hmm ... I think you've 4 told a lie! You don't know how to 5 say anything in Italian!

HIRANUR    That doesn't matter! I can use an online dictionary to 6 translate everything!

3 Complete the text with the words in the box.

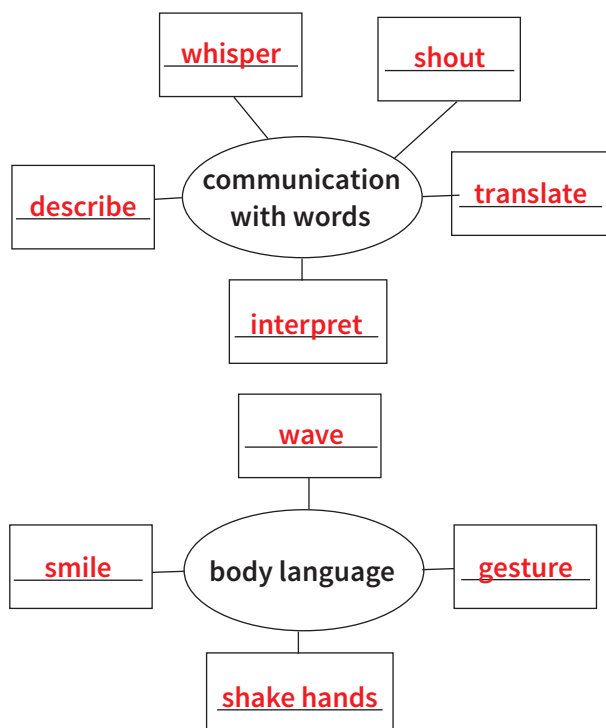

greet    post    say (x3)    shake hands
shout    tell    telling    wave

When you travel to other countries, it's important to know the rules of communication. In some countries, you shouldn't 1 wave with an open hand, because it is an insult. In others, you should only 2 shake hands with the right, never the left. In some places, it's important not to 3 shout, even if you are angry! When you meet someone, there are special ways to 4 greet them in different cultures. There are even rules about how to 5 say hello! Of course, in every country you should 6 tell the truth, but 7 telling lies is more serious in some cultures than in others. You also need to know how to 8 say "sorry" in the right way. And in some places, you have to be very careful what you 9 post on social media: some things are illegal! One thing is for sure: if you can 10 say something in the language of the country, you'll make friends quickly!
